Daniel Holcombe Thomas was born in Prattville, Alabama, in 1906. He was appointed to the federal bench in 1951 by President Harry Truman. Although Judge Thomas retired in 1972, he retained supernumerary status until his death in 2000, making him one of the United States' longest serving justices. Known as a conservative, Judge Thomas served on several civil rights cases, one of the most important of which was the Birdie Mae Davis v. Mobile County School Board school desegregation case. He also developed a national reputation as a justice ruling in maritime cases.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of 13 personal scrapbooks spanning the entire tenure of federal judge Daniel H. Thomas. It also contains one bound volume of congratulatory letters written to Judge Thomas upon the 15th anniversary of his installation as a judge, as well as miscellaneous speeches, letters, and articles about the judge. Within the scrapbooks are a myriad of items, including newsclippings, brochures, programs, letters, photographs, telegrams, cards, and invitations.
